CALL AND PROTECT VOCATIONS

To the full extent of my power, because I am a priest,
I wish from now on to become conscious of all that the world loves,
pursues and suffers;
I want to seek,
to sympathize and to suffer;
to unfold and
sacrifice myself

to become more widely human and more nobly of the earth than any of the worlds servants

Subject: Priest status

Sr. Mary Ann,
A while back you send me assignments for a Fr. Joseph E. Savage from 1927 - 1936.

I need to know all of his assignments and his ministerial and canonical status to this date.

Greatly appreciated. See you later.

Laura
And so I come to any fulfill 50 years and I look--yes! I look and expect a few more years. As good as God has been--He will be good.

There is still much to be done. How our minds wander amidst our friends in prayer. I must take care of my boys on the way to the Priesthood. To see their day they are ordained, to stand beside them at the Altar for their first Mass and watch the Heavens open and I behold!

The joy is as great and compelling as is the grief and heart-break for those who have lost will try to forget and trample their vocation.

God designs the life and work of every one born. He makes Known to us His plan. Yet some thumb their nose at God. We shall await the day when they shall return. Let us stand like a tree against all storms to hold high and firm our praying branches to God in the Heavens, that they may soon return.

The Priest must provide for others to follow him. To be on the look for little boys, whose first words may be "I wanna be a priest." Golden curled and blue banjo-ed eyed and at four - saying Mass for their mothers and fathers, clad in rosy-hued vestments of wallpaper, uttering their un-intelligible nothings over a golden sprayed water goblet. Can we say such a one does not have a vocation? Why then must he barter it for the nothings that the world has to offer? The Priest visits hospitals, anoints the dying, the dead, closes their eyes to the visions of eternity. He gives to the hungry, when he himself starves. He carries his most loved emblem onto the battle field amidst shot scrapnel. He heard the moans of the dying and hardest of all- he consoles the parents of the boy who leaves the vacant chair- or like my friend, Jimmy Liston, goes down with his ship in the North Atlantic- down to an eternally changing grave. Surely Jesus can not be asleep in the Boat.

Thanks be to God--two years ago I celebrated my golden anniversary of my ordination to the Holy Priesthood. Singled out and chosen by God, from among men I know not why. What talents had I to offer the great God, I never shall know. To spend twelve short day by day years, living near and close to Him? Markering to the Call, audible through the Bishop, I presented to God, all that I was, in Ordination.

The Sublime Reward--My First Blessing as God's new Priest, upon my Mother and Father, an anointed hand upon the head of each. Heaven truly opened that moment in the Little Old Church on Victoria Street and I beheld.

Then came appointments in Chicago where I learned to dispense the Love, Kindness and Forebearance of the Master, from sainted old Priests long ago gone to their heavenly reward--to join ranks of those, who, as Lambs, follow the Good Shepherd, wheresoever He goes.

About this time a boy came to me and told me he wanted to be a Priest. Then began a "Hobby" that has been all the years since. I was happy to help ten such boys to the fulfillment of their calling, desiring that a little of me live on in them after I am gone. And then disaster struck. Six of the eight quit. Three of them marrying, one of them willing to continue his studies hoping by the time he would be ready for ordination, celibacy would be thrown out, we do not need such perverts and devils incarnate.

The number of Priests who have left the Church and vows is tragic. The number of Sisters, forgetting, too their Church and vows is frightening, but when Seminarians upon whom depends the future of God's Church leave us, then are we afraid?
In the Chapel of the little mission of Teslin on Lake Teltin, Yukon territory, we saw the Tabernacle in the shape of a teepee, done in beautiful bronze. Truly the Eskimo and the Indian could realize Our Lord loved them and they could always come to Him abiding in a teepee.

I find each year that it is more difficult to take care of all the things sent to me, so I ask that you send directly to the Sisters at Keshena.

Father James Madden, head of the El Paso Diocese C.Y.O. for the past 15 years has been appointed to a parish, hence he can no longer care for the many packages sent to him. So send your packages to Sisters of St. Joseph Indian School Keshena, Wisconsin 54135

These Sisters teach about 350 Indian children who are in desperate need of clothing and they do love toys and religious articles.

Please send cancelled stamps and junk "joolery" to me. All else send to the above addresses. I have time to process these items.

Over the years they have been first of all and by far the greatest, the Used Greeting Card, then came National Geographics, clothing, old rosaries, Catholic magazines and literature, cancelled stamps, junk joolery, old gold (no cigarettes), school supplies and novelties. Usable band instruments were asked for last year by a school starting an orchestra, anything at all for which you have no use.

May I express the thanks of those who have been helped by the gifts of those who gave.

Bless you at Christmas and may all your year be happy.

Two years ago I wrote the following:

"At the beginning of this school year, a great joy was mine. The time had come as usual for my boys to lay aside their "crap" and put on the Cassock, the symbol of the Friestooddhood. These boys were selected from the first grade, then they were given the Cassock, and now they are in the first year of their studies. They are now in their fourth year of high school. In a few years they will be priests. If you can remember the Seminary years, you will know the joy of the Seminary, of the life of a Seminary student. The first year is spent in study, the second in study and prayer, the third in study, prayer, and work, and the fourth year is spent in study, prayer, and work and for one year, of course, they will be in the Seminary. During these years the boys have no time to play, they have no chance to relax.

The boys have grown up and have changed during these Seminary years. They are now grown men, and they have to be prepared to enter the Seminary. I pray that they may be able to give their lives to the Church, to the Seminary, and to the people of the mission.

I hope that all of you who have sent gifts will continue to do so, and I hope that all of you who have not sent gifts will do so in the future.

May God bless you and your family and may God bless all of us who are in need of His grace and mercy. Amen.

Reverend and dear Father,

By virtue of the power given to US by Canons 2220 sq. and Canon 2217, #1, no. 3, we hereby issue to you a formal double canonical precept, namely 1) of leaving immediately for [REDACTED] and reporting there to the Brother in charge within the time established by the Right Reverend Chancellor; 2) of remaining there and of not leaving unless such permission is explicitly given you by lawful authority. This precept is given under pain of incurring "ipso facto Suspensio ab Officio" according to Canon 2279, #1, with all the consequences thereof for failing to comply with this strict grave precept, which censure if incurred is automatically "ab homine" and its absolution reserved to US unique terrarum by Canon 2245, #3.

This is to be considered a formal warning and threat of a lata Sententia punishment made according to Canon 2225.

De mandato speciali Eminentissimi Archiepiscopi.
I, Reverend Edward M. Burke, notary of the Archdiocese of Chicago, do hereby certify that His Eminence George Cardinal Mundelein has accepted the resignation of Rev. Joseph Savage, pastor of Holy Cross, Deerfield, from the pastorate of the same church.

Dear Monsignor:

Up to the present I have been censoring Father Savagese mail, and must say I did not find anything unbecoming. He said I find it rather strange that they give orders of censoring my mail now after I am here a month, why they did not do this immediately, though he did not object to any extent to have it censored.

With kind regards. I remain

Very sincerely yours,

Brother Basil.
Chicago, Illinois.
February 4, 1937.

Reverend Brother Basil,

Dear Brother Basil:

I beg to acknowledge your letter of February 3rd regarding [redacted].

I would not tell Father Savage the reason why you are censoring his mail; he undoubtedly knows. Simply tell him that you have been ordered to do so by the Chancery Office.

With best wishes, I beg to remain,

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Vice Chancellor.

Reverend Brother Basil,

Dear Brother Basil:

I have received your letter of March 23rd. Once again I have occasion to admire your great kindness and consideration. I trust that the men under your care appreciate at least slightly the many inconveniences you put yourself to in their behalf.

Regarding Father Savage, I think he should bring his car to Antioch and store it there. I think it best that one of the Brothers accompany him and return with him the same day.

With many thanks for your kindness and wishing you a happy Easter, I beg to remain,

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Rt. Rev. R. C. Maguire

Reverend Brother Basil, Rector,

Dear Brother Basil:

I am writing relative to the case of Father Savage. As you know possibly, he has been in some rather serious difficulties with the government. The matter at present seems to be dormant and I am hopeful that it will be dropped entirely.

Personally I feel that Father Savage is mentally unbalanced.

Reverend Brother Basil, Rector,

Dear Brother Basil:

At the time of your last visit to Chicago I told you that the United States District Attorney in Chicago desires a more complete statement relative to the condition of Father Savage. He would like to have the information as suggested in the enclosed letter. Do you think you can obtain this for me?

Thanking you kindly, and with best wishes,

Pt. Rev. Monsignor A. Casey:

Dear Monsignor:

I wish to offer my humble congratulations to you, upon the honors that have but recently come to you, and I pray that God may ever grant you His Holy Grace to discharge your high office.

May I ask you, Dear Monsignor, for permission to visit my mother, if only for an hour or so. She is in her eighty-first year and all alone. It is now the fifth month since she has seen me; and it is more for her sake than my own that I ask this small consideration of you.

Yours very sincerely in Our Lord

And obediently, Joseph Savage.
Chicago, Illinois.
July 9th, 1958.

Reverend Joseph E. Savage,

Dear Father Savage:

In reply to your letter of July 6th asking for permission to visit your mother, I beg to inform you that permission is hereby granted to you to leave on Saturday, July 16th and return to [redacted] on Monday, July 18th.

With best wishes, I remain,

Reverend Brother Gerard, Rector,

Dear Brother Gerard:

I understand that you have recently been assigned Rector [redacted]. I do not know whether I should offer you my congratulations or not, as your task is certainly not an easy one. I know, however, that we will receive the same whole-hearted cooperation from you that we received from your predecessor, Brother Basil.

As you know we have a number of priests from the Archdiocese of Chicago staying at [redacted] for one reason or another. [redacted]

Recently I had received requests from three of our priests there to leave [redacted] for various purposes. [redacted]

I have granted permission to Father Savage to visit his mother leaving [redacted] on Saturday next, July 16th and returning on Monday, July 18th.

In the future I think it would be better if you informed the priests that these permissions must be referred to you and that you will in turn communicate with me to see whether or not we will permit them. In this way I can contact you directly and you will have the official data as to when they are to leave and return. In any case should they not return on schedule or should anything unusual happen, I would be pleased to have you communicate with me immediately.

With best wishes, I beg to remain,

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Monsignor Geo. J. Casey

Dear Bill,

The letter I wrote the other day, I am afraid was a bit incoherent, as I was very much upset over the outcome of the meeting with Bishop Griffin. And I scarcely know where to begin now. I fear I am bothering you, Bill, but I am just about discouraged, and yet I have prayed with all my heart. I have tried every little chance that was given me. With permission I went to Milwaukee and offered myself to Bishop Murach. No results. Later Bishop Robinson - no results.

Bishop Rhode - no answer. Bishop Griffin of Springfield - no need of priest, just at the present time. Bishop Keely of Trenton - no shortage of priests.

Bishop Griffin of La Crosse, whom I was able to meet, the kindness of Msgr. Carey, confirmed in no uncertain terms, our belief that no Bishop would accept any priest while at . Bishop Griffin suggested I ask the Cardinal for a temporary place from which I was able to work for a time and as soon as it would be expedient, to contact a Bishop. I spoke with the permission to go home to Mother, as I understand this was granted in a case recently, say my daily Mass at Father Mahertys, in a word to report to him, until such time as I could go to a Bishop and say to him: Here, I have done this and this, for so long a time.
And with the recommendation of my superiors give me a workable chance.

Word has gone around here that no man here now will be experimented with in Chicago. Bill—I agreed to that matter and months ago, when you obtained that permission from Hugo. Heagerty and I have worked on every little lead, however small, that presented itself. So Bill, it comes down to just this: my only hope is to be permitted to leave here and go back to work, and then prove to His Eminence that with God's help I intend to go the straight and narrow way. I ask you to show this letter to Hugo, Casey and ask him to grant me permission to quietly go home to Mother. Which would be very logical, as I have been sick and Mother is 81 years of age. The people would understand that reason. After a time then I would be able to find a Bishop who would give me work in another diocese. I also submit by you, a letter from [Redacted] for Mr. Casey. Trusting that God will hear my prayer that this my last resort may be successful.

Sincerely in the Sacred Heart of Jesus.

Most gratefully, yours.

Joseph Savage

Rt Rev dear Magr.:

I have been interceding for poor Father Savage and at last Bishop Reverman has agreed to allow me to take him as my assistant if his eminence, the Cardinal will permit it. Will you speak to him about it?

There are these questions, that my ordinary wishes answered:

Is the prime considered sufficiently atoned by the penance he has done?

Has or rather do you think, he has learned the lesson that he probably will not relapse?

Is the debt that he is said to owe his former housekeeper to be considered a personal or a congregational obligation?

I am going to the Eucharistic Congress, and on my way back, I shall call at the Chancery office to go over these matters personally with you.

Yours fraternally,

Dear Monsignor Mueller,

In reply to your letter of October 14th informing me that Bishop Reverman had agreed to allow you to take Father Savage as your assistant, I beg to inform you that His Eminence, Cardinal Mundelein, has granted the necessary permission. In reply to your three questions, I submit the following answers:

1.) I think that Father Savage has sufficiently atoned for his past mistake by the penance he has already done.

2.) I do not think that a relapse is probable to occur.

3.) I did not know of the debt owed his former housekeeper. If, however, this money is due her for services rendered as housekeeper, it seems to me that the parish will have to meet it as a parochial obligation rather than a personal one.

I have written Father Savage telling him of the permission granted by His Eminence the Cardinal. I wish to assure you, as well as Bishop Reverman, that we appreciate very much the opportunity that is being given to Father Savage. Should trouble later develop, it is understood that we would take care of Father Savage again, since he remains a priest of the Archdiocese of Chicago.

With best wishes, I remain,

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Reverend Joseph Savage,

Dear Father Savage,

Monsignor Mueller of Minocqua, Wisconsin, has written me telling me that Bishop Reverman has agreed to allow him to take you as his assistant if His Eminence, Cardinal Mundelein, would grant this permission. I have taken the matter up with His Eminence, and I am pleased to inform you that he grants the necessary permission for you to accept the assignment. It is understood, of course, that you are not hereby incardinated into the diocese of Superior, Wisconsin, and that if any of the former trouble occurs, that you must return to [handwritten: ].

With all good wishes and prayers that you may prove successful in this undertaking, I remain,

Sincerely yours in Christ,

At Rev dear Msgr:

It is with regret that I must inform you that I have dismissed Father Savage from here.

Under pretence of visiting his mother, he has entertained all this week and I think all last week, a number of boys, ranging in age from eleven to sixteen years, at his cottage.

I do not know that a crime has been committed, but a man with his past, cannot be allowed to do such things.

My efforts to help him have been in vain.

RE: REVEREND JOSEPH SAVAGE

The above priest came in to see me regarding the letter I received under date of July 26, 1940 from Monsignor Mueller of Minocqua, Wisconsin. I told Father Savage that we would not assign him in the Archdiocese of Chicago under any circumstances since the Federal Government will prosecute him should we do so. For the present, I have permitted him to stay with his mother at Antioch, Illinois, (Telephone: 82W), with the understanding that he keep in regular touch with Fr. Flaherty.

CONFIDENTIAL REPORT

SAVAGE,  JOSEPH  Antioch, Illinois.

(Names)

On July 24, 1950, I had him in about the attacked letters brought to me by the Postal Inspector's Office of Chicago. Father S. admits that he wrote them in a moment of anger. He had stayed at a tourist cabin in a town in Wisconsin and thought the woman had overcharged him badly. Promises it will never happen again. Told him if we get further complaints of this kind he leaves us no choice - we will have to turn him over to federal prosecution or send him to indefinitely.

He lives at the home of his mother in Antioch, Illinois. She died a few years ago. Says Mass week-days for B.N.M.s at their Lilac Lodge (given thme by Joyce); on Sundays he helps out at Wilmot, Wisconsin - just over the border of Chicago archdiocese.

DESCRIPTION OF OCCURRENCES OF DESECRATION AND THIEVERY IN DIOCESE OF CHICAGO

St Gregory's Church, Deerfield: One pair sterling silver water and wine cruets, made by Louis Glazer @ $250.00 the pair, inscriptions engraved on base: "In memory of Elizabeth Harvey"; In memory of Florence Hill Marshall" (dates). In this case, the parish secretary saw the car drive up in the rear as she was leaving for lunch. The driver ducked down but she had the impression he was a priest. The car then went around to the front and as it went by, the curate saw from his apartment both the priest and the car, altho he could not discern the man's face. While the car was parked in an unusual place near the front of the church, two parishioners saw it and have identified it as a black 1959 Chevrolet. Items stolen were covered within $30 by insurance. Date of occurrence: 28 April 1960.

St Richard's Church, Edgebrook (Chicago): Polychromed handcarved Christus Rex stolen from over the side altar, where the Blessed Sacrament was reserved. Also missing: one new guest register. Value of crucifix, $28.00; of register, $5.00 - no insurance on either. In this case, muddy footprints were left on the dust cloth of the altar, where the desecrator had stood on the mensa to remove the crucifix. The rector of the parish saw the person emerge from the church, engaged him in conversation, makes positive identification of both the man and his car. Later he found the items missing and discovered the desecration involved.

St John's Church, Mt Prospect: On All Souls' Day, 1959 the pulpit crucifix (carved passion crucifix, Oberammergau) and a pair of requiem and Good Friday handcarved walnut candelsticks were taken out of the sacristy. On Ember Wednesday, 9 March 1960, a brass pulpit crucifix at the pulpit, and the celebrant's cross on the altar (handcarved wood, Passion) were taken, OH Easter Even, 1 April 1961, an electric hotplate was stolen from the outer sacristy. In the former two cases, robbery was made during lunch hour and no one spotted the thief; in the latter case, per subject letter, the priest was seen, recognized, and conversed with by the Rector of the parish.

Christ Church, Joliet: In the summer of 1960, a small Madonna was stolen from the chapel and the thief defecated on the altar rail cushion before the altar where the Blessed Sacrament was reserved. In this case, no identification was possible; it happened when no one was around. The chapel is capable of entry from a side street, on the blind side of the church.

Trinity Church, Highland Park: On a Sunday afternoon, it is thought, on or about 28 April 1960, a small 15 French antique crucifix on wall over credence in chapel was stolen. No identification of thief possible; not seen. This item not insured.

Church of the Good Shepherd, Monocot: Small statue of the IVM stolen Summer 1960.

Dear Father Shurgott:

RE: Various Burglaries and Church Damage

This is with further reference to our telephone conversation today in connection with the captioned subjects.

St. Gregory's Episcopal Church, Deerfield, Illinois, reported a loss of two silver cruets on March 28, 1960, about noon. These cruets were valued at $229.00 ($110 and $119 each) upon which we paid the loss. I understand it took $210.00 to replace them.

St. Richard's Episcopal Church, 3101 West Devon Avenue, Chicago, Illinois, reported a theft loss to me this summer by telephone. My files do not indicate that we turned this in nor did we pay a loss.

St. Paul's Episcopal Church, Sturtevant, Wisconsin, reported April 6, 1960, that someone had visited their church several times. One Sunday they missed a cruets but weren't sure what happened to the wine. Later they found that the wine had been poured over the organ keyboard. Since this church did not have the proper type of coverage we did not pay a loss here.

Church of the Holy Communion (Episcopal), Lake Geneva, Wisconsin - Father Post reported damage to organ keys as well as defacement on the credence table. This happened September 27, 1960. We paid $30.12 on this loss.

St. Paul's Episcopal Church, Watertown, Wisconsin - I received a copy of a letter dated February 25, 1960, from this church which read in part "In addition to this we have had seven windows broken by unknown persons."

In another letter of the same date the rector mentioned the theft of an Oriental rug from the chapel. We did not pay here because of certain conditions. Nevertheless, the church did suffer a loss.

Christ Episcopal Church, Joliet, Illinois, reported the loss of a crucifix and possibly some other items this fall. We were not involved in this at that time.
St. John's Episcopal Church, Mount Prospect, Illinois, reported the loss of a wood altar cross valued at approximately $16.50 and one metal pulpit cross valued at $8 to $10.00 on November 2, 1960. We paid a loss of $14.00.

Trusting this information will be of assistance to all concerned, I remain

Sincerely,

Dear Father Ehringott:

I have been trying to track down the information you requested.

On April 2, 1960, a man dressed as a priest was seen entering St. Mark's Church, South Milwaukee. He was described as rather elderly and somewhat stooped. He was driving a 1959 black Chevrolet. (Father Miles gave me this information before I gave your description to him.) He was accompanied by two teenage boys. Soon afterward it was discovered that a stone figure from Holland of our Lady and the Child standing about 30" was missing.

That same afternoon Immanuel Church, Racine, lost a pair of cruets. Later in the day he was seen in Holy Innocents' Church, Racine, by the organist and later was seen in the Church of St. John the Divine in Burlington. In these two cases nothing was taken.

On the eighth or ninth of March, 1961, Christ Church, Delavan, was entered and a cheap 10" statue of the Madonna and Child and a crucifix stolen. In 1959 figures from the Christmas creche were stolen along with a registration book. (The local Roman church lost creche figures at the same time.)

More than a year ago the Church of the Holy Communion was entered and a crucifix and bottle of wine were stolen from the sacristy. Several months ago the church was entered again and the individual urinated on the credence table.

A person described in the same way and accompanied by two teenage boys was seen about a year ago by workmen in St. Paul's, Milwaukee. As far as I know nothing was taken. I recall that St. Luke's, Whitewater, was vandalized several times recently. I believe a crucifix and statues were involved here, too. I was unable to reach the present rector for additional information. There may have been other cases which I have not heard about. I hope this information helps you.

Faithfully yours,

My dear Lord Bishop,

I enclose a file prepared by me on the depositions and statements performed recently in the Diocese of Chicago as well as your own, coming to the Viceroy General of the Archdiocese of Chicago the priest of their jurisdiction who is responsible by positive identification for at least four of these.

I obtained a list of the exhumations done in your diocese from Father Smith; will you show him the enclosed? I want to keep the affair as closely guarded as the name of the clerk as possible.

I did not of course mention in the letter to the Viceroy General anything regarding what might be your reaction to all things; Smith gave me a list which I had copied for you here, with his knowledge and consent.

With kindest personal regards, I am

Mgr. George Casey, Vicar General
Roman Catholic Archdiocese of Chicago
719 N. Wabash Ave.
Chicago 11, Illinois

Right Reverend and dear Monsignor,

I am advised and directed by the Bishop of Chicago to present to you certain facts regarding acts of sacrilege and pilfering in the Diocese of Chicago, and to give you the name of the person involved so that you may take appropriate action. I was advised by Mgr. Masterson of the Chancery Office to address myself to the Vicar General.

You will understand that it is with extreme personal regret and no little embarrassment that I write this letter, perhaps the most difficult thing I have ever had to do, for it involves not only a priest, but one who has been known to me the past twelve years; in my first parish he lived across the street from my rectory, and where he still resides.

During the past year and one-half, at least six of the parish churches of the Diocese of Chicago have been desecrated and robbed of sacred objects by a man dressed in clerical who has been seen and engaged in conversation by several of our clergy, before they realized he was the culprit. The clergy of the Diocese have been alerted to the danger and a description of him and of his car has been published several times in diocesan bulletins. On several occasions, one or two teen-age boys accompanied him.

Since speaking with Mgr. Masterson I have contacted more of the clergy and have learned of certain acts of vile sacrilege and of other acts of desecration and thievery. The activities have spread also into the Diocese of Milwaukee. I enclose herewith true copies of letters listing the acts, from our Church Insurance Company and from the Diocese of Milwaukee, together with a list I have compiled of occurrences within the Diocese of Chicago. Since my church was hit three times, I became the logical person to follow through on the matter.

Wherever possible I have noted that positive identification was made; where it was not, I have also so noted. The two indecent acts of blasphemous desecration did not occur in churches where anything was noted but the act itself; however, all the depredations follow a pattern; they are all highly coincidental.
My parish church has been robbed three times: first in the Fall of 1959 (Eve of All Souls' Day), when a pair of candelsticks were stolen together with a pulpit crucifix. Then on March 9, 1960, just before an episcopal visitation, two objects to be blessed by the Bishop were discovered stolen: the pulpit cross, again, and the altar cross; the celebrant's altar crucifix roping on the mensa, behind the tabernacle.

This Easter Even, 1 April 1961, at about 2:30 in the afternoon, while working in and about the church, I heard the sacristy door slam. I immediately entered the rear of the church to investigate, whereupon I encountered this priest coming down the side aisle in great haste, with a young boy following him. I recognized the man immediately as my former neighbor, and addressed him by name:

I represent to you that the cleric's name is, the Reverend Joseph Savage, 995 Main St., Antioch, Illinois. Tel. Antioch 82-58.

Father Savage had something under his overcoat, and I was so flabbergasted that I could not bring myself to ask him what he had there, although while I conversed with him I cast an eye over my altar and sanctuary and saw nothing missing; the altar and sanctuary were still "stripped" from Good Friday.

After giving the priest my name, he recognized me and filled in my first name. I invited him to stay a while and visit with me, but he stated that he was in a big hurry, and left. I stated that I wanted him to see a statue of Our Lady of Fatima which he had given me upon my being priested while at St. Ignatius', Antioch, and which I have kept in my office. (It is small comfort to know that this version of Our Lady could not have been taken from an Anglican parish church!) He had a teen-age boy in tow, who was obviously frightened, although the priest himself carried it off with aplomb. After they left I immediately went into the sacristy to check, and while I had left the cabinets containing the communion vessels open while working and checking on things, nothing appeared gone, or I think I might have called the police, as I did on the previous occasion. Several hours later, however, our sacristans discovered a hotplate missing, used to boil water for cleansing the chalices. I have since thought that they perhaps heard no coming before they could get into the cabinets, and grabbed the first thing available, which was the most prosaic item yet stolen.

After the priest and boy left I got on the telephone to alert those parishes previously visited. From one of them I got concurrence on the identification of the priest, together with the description of the car, which I did not see: a black 1959 Chevrolet, as previously reported in the Diocese. From another priest I got the same description of the car. (Note enclosed list for further information.) I thenceon telephoned the Rector of Antioch and obtained from him the description of the priest's car, which checked out. Our priest was in fact able to look out of his window to see that the car was not there.

You will understand that my Bishop and the clergy whose churches were robbed and desecrated do not wish to press any civil charges, for we are dealing not only with a person in Holy Orders, but with one who is obviously mentally ill. All the losses save one (St. Gregory's Deofield) were of great value, and many items were covered by insurance, partially. We are, however, as you will be, concerned with the sacrilege and desecration involved - particulars of which are noted in enclosed papers. The bother of reporting to the insurance company, of replacing stolen items, etc., is minor compared with the spiritual disaster, not only to this cleric, but to the holy things of the Church in most of the cases, the desecration and robberies were performed within the sanctuaries of the churches or their chapels or side altars, in the Presence of the Reservcd Sacrament. Not only was the sacrilege of plifering committed, but vile and indecent actions were also done. I can only pray that these latter were not part of the wholesale depredations of this priest; I shall be most careful to reiterate that in those cases no one was observed in or about the church plants.

I do not have to emphasize the great scandal which would ensue if this priest were caught in flagrante delicto; the thing that saved him from arrest at my church was my personal acquaintance with him and my reluctance at the moment of meeting to believe that he had been up to something. I would point out, however, that our clergy and laity who have witnessed his appearances have of course recognized him as a person in clericals; while the reaction was that he was a bogus priest, our clergy now know that this was all done by a person in Orders. In this connection, however, let me assure you, Monsignor, that the name of the priest has been confined to our Bishop and three of the clergy, and will be kept secret despite the great hubbub in the parishes and in the Diocese of Chicago over these acts.

As to the mental illness of the priest, I recall that he has been a collector of rummage and salvage for missions. The items he has purloined could then be easily disposed of, moreover. He has means of his own and does not need recourse of this kind.

You may be assured that no legal action is contemplated in the Diocese of Chicago, and I know that your exercise of Disciplo will terminate the affair. As to restitution, I have indicated in each report whether items taken were insured, with payment made by the Church Insurance Company. Reimbursement in these cases should then be made to the Company. Where items were not covered, remittance could be made either to the Bishops of Chicago and Milwaukee, or direct to the parishes. I realize here, however, that we cannot actually make claims, particularly when no one was seen on the premises.

I have set this down at great length for your help in disposing of the case. I am willing, although not eager, to meet with you in person. I should not, however, want to be a witness to the humiliation of a person in Holy Orders by appearing in a meeting with him present. Msgr Masterson, who was most kind and helpful, suggested that I might be in danger from
this man; if it is possible within your exercise of priestly discipline, to leave my name out of it, I should be grateful.

I hope that you will feel that I have handled so grave a matter with as much discretion and priestly courtesy as possible; if there is anything further I can cooperate in, kindly advise me.

Fraternally yours in Christ,

Father Ehrgott

You may be assured that no legal action is contemplated in the Diocese of Chicago, and I know that your exercise of Discipline will terminate the affair. As to restitution, I have indicated in each report whether items taken were insured, with payment made by the Church Insurance Company.
Reimbursement in those cases should then be made to the Company. Where items were not covered, remittance could be made either to the Bishops of Chicago and Milwaukee, or direct to the parishes. I realize, however, that we cannot actually make claims, particularly when no one was seen on the premises.

I have set this down at great length for your help in disposing of the case. I am willing, although not eager, to meet with you in person. I should not, however, want to be a witness to the humiliation of a person in Holy Orders by appearing in a meeting with him present. Msgr. Masterson, who was most kind and helpful, suggested that I might be in danger from
this man; if it is possible within your exercise of priestly discipline,
to leave my name out of it, I should be grateful.

I hope that you will feel that I have handled so grave a matter with as much discretion and priestly courtesy as possible; if there is anything further I can co-operate in, kindly advise me.

Fraternally yours in Christ,

Father Ehrrott

Dear Father Ehrgott:

This is to acknowledge your letter of April 8, 1961 reporting acts of sacrilege and pilfering of a number of your churches by a retired priest of our jurisdiction. I assure you that we will investigate the case and take appropriate steps. This priest is now 71 years of age and while there were definite indications of mental illness in the past, this is the first time that it manifested itself by such acts as described in your letter. I appreciate the kind and delicate manner in which you have presented the matter and assure you that I will respect your confidence to the best of my ability.

With best wishes,

Sincerely yours,

Vicar General
TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN:

The enclosed picture is of a bronze Head of Christ which was taken from Zion Episcopal Church.

It is roughly 10 x 12" and weighs about 15 pounds.

Other items which have disappeared from the Parish include a brass crucifix made in Belgium, a brass ewer approximately 18" high marked "Given by the Sunday School of Zion Church 1903". A small Della Robbia type terra cotta glazed scene of The Annunciation to Mary.

We shall be grateful for the return of any of these objects.

Sincerely yours,

My dear Lord Bishop,

I respectfully enclose a letter that I propose to send to the Cardinal Archbishop of the Roman Catholic Archdiocese of Chicago, naming to him the clerics who has been committing acts of desecration and robbery in our parishes. The priest in question is, obviously, of the Roman Archdiocese, under the jurisdiction of the local archdiocese. He is not the pastor of a parish, however, I should add, being what we should call a supply priest, not living in community.

I feel that to handle the matter by correspondence is the best way—presenting the facts to the Cardinal, so that he will see the circumstances with which we will have handled the matter, since it touches upon the honor of the priesthood. Kindly give me your thoughts and golly council, and I shall complete the letter and forward it to the Cardinal, in this way, you will also be acquainted with the full story, and I will have the benefit of your advice and direction in this matter of extreme delicacy.

The only priest of the Diocese who knows particularly of this priest (i.e., his name) and of his involvement as well, is Father Reed at Archdiocesan will keep the matter in the strictest confidence.

I would also propose sending the Cardinal Archbishop a copy of this letter to the Bishop, so that he will see that the matter has been courteously handled. When you write me, will you also enclose a copy of your letter to me, to send to the Cardinals?

I myself think that this is the only way to handle the matter, by referral in writing to the Roman Ordinary, who can then thousand it properly. Any personal contact might prove time-consuming and embarrassing.

Yours obediently in Him,

Roberta E. Hargott

The Rt. Rev. the Bishop of Chicago

NB: Perhaps a list from your office of the items stolen might be of value to the Chancery authorities. REV+
Dear Magr Casey,

Thank you for your letter of the 11th, stating that appropriate steps will be taken in the matter of the sacrilegious pilferings of Episcopal churches in the Chicago and Milwaukee dioceses.

I assume that Magr Masterson has relayed to you the conversation over the phone I had with him yesterday, to the effect that the Rector of the local parish where our subject priest lives feels a bit apprehensive (despite the good relations both he and I had with the man), because of several incidents between subject cleric and townspeople, in which the priest acted in rather irrational and vindictive manner. I too feel a bit squeamish about it all, since he will know who it was that recognized him.

Therefore, if you cannot handle him within ecclesiastical Discipline, I would appreciate knowing of it.

I am grateful for your remarks concerning my role in this, which has been both hard and embarrassing for me. You will realize that my whole effort has been to forestall difficulty rather than to create or increase it.

I enclose the original of a note from the Rector of Zion Church, Oconomowoc, Wisconsin, sent me by the Diocese of Milwaukee, which lists four items of sacred furnishings stolen from that parish.

Yours faithfully,

MEMORANDUM

On April 13, 1961 I called in Father Henderson, the Pastor of St. Peter in Antioch, to talk to him about this letter from the Episcopalian minister. He tells me that he had never been aware of such pilfering on the part of Father Savage -- either directly or indirectly. He does not see much of Father Savage since he does not say Mass in his church. He understands that he says Mass every day for Sisters in a convent in Lake Villa, which is not too far away from Antioch. He corroborates the fact that Father Savage generally does have one or two teen-aged boys when he drives the car, but he sees no implication in this.

Father Henderson believes the doctor told him he should never drive his car alone. Father Henderson also corroborates the fact that for years Father Savage has had a hobby of collecting rummage and salvage for missions in the U.S. He tells me that Father Savage generally sends out about 10,000 Christmas cards to different people throughout the country asking them for old clothes, blankets, religious articles, etc., which he then forwards to poor dioceses in the United States. Father Henderson tells me that his own home where he lives at 955 S. Main Street in Antioch is cluttered with all sorts of things intended for the missions. Father Savage spends a great deal of time in preparing this stuff for shipment to the missions. The one eighth grade boy whose name is is with him a great deal. He wants to become a priest and Father Savage arranged for him to register in St. Francis Seminary for the Archdiocese of Milwaukee starting in September of this year.

MEMORANDUM

On April 20, 1961 Father Joseph Savage came to see me as I had requested him to do. He does not look well at all and was breathing very heavily after climbing up the stairs to my office.

I asked him if he drove a car and he said he did, and I asked him what kind. He said it was a Chevrolet and when I asked him if it was a 1959 model he said no, that it was a 1960 model which he acquired sometime in 1960 although he didn't remember just what time of the year. At that time he traded in a Plymouth for the 1960 Chevrolet. (The verification of this may be of considerable importance for in the complaints detailed in the file, eye witnesses identified the car positively as a black 1959 Chevrolet.) Father Savage is going to send me the actual bill of sale so that I can check the date of the acquisition of the 1960 Chevrolet and also the detail of what kind of a car was traded in at that time.

I then asked Father Savage whether he was in the habit of visiting Episcopalian churches and he answered in the negative. He told me that he had only been in one Episcopalian church and that was a few weeks ago when he was visiting Father O'Brien of our Parish in Mt. Prospect. He found out that the Pastor of St. John's Episcopal Church in Mt. Prospect was the Reverend Robert E. Ehrrott with whom he had very cordial and friendly relations when he was the Pastor of the Episcopalian church of St. Ignatius in Antioch. He tells me that he did not know where to find him and so went into the church thinking that perhaps he might get the janitor or maintenance man to tell him where Father Ehrrott resided. He tells me that he met him in the church, talked with him for a short time and that that is the only time he has been in an Episcopalian church. He denies most earnestly and vigorously that he took anything on this occasion or that he had ever taken anything from any other Episcopalian churches in Deerfield, Highland Park, Edgebrook in Chicago, or any churches around the Milwaukee area. I then told him that we had complaints that he was supposed to have been seen in certain of these churches accompanied by one or two teen-aged boys and the car was described as a black 1959 Chevrolet. He admits that when driving a car he does have one eighth grade boy, or at certain times two, accompanying him. Generally he does the driving but he took the boys along because of his physical condition. He indignantly denies that he ever pilfered anything from any church and that he would have better sense than to do a thing like that especially if, as alleged, he had one or two teen-aged boys with him at the time.
I asked him to be utterly honest with me telling him that otherwise he would probably get in difficulty with the civil law and might be arrested. He still insisted that he was telling me the absolute truth and that the only time he had ever been in an Episcopalian church was when he tried to see his old friend in the church in Mt. Prospect.

Father Savage lives in the home that his mother previously owned at 955 S. Main Street in Antioch. He lives there all alone since his housekeeper, who is now over 100, retired and went to live with her relatives. He says Mass on weekdays for the Sisters of Our Lady of the Cedars in Lake Villa which is about five miles away and owned by the BVMs. On Sundays he helps out at the parish church in Wilmot in Wisconsin. He admits that he has been gathering rummage and salvage for the missions for about 20 years. Now it has got too much for him and he is trying to get rid of it. He sends the material collected to Father James Madden, Secretary to Bishop Metzger of ElPaso, for his Our Lady of Guadalupe Thrift Shop, which is sort of a salvage bureau for the missions there.

I told him that the clergy of the Episcopalian diocese have been alerted to the danger of the pilfering and a description of him and of his car has been published several times in diocesan bulletins. I warned him that he should never visit any Episcopalian church again and he wanted to know what he could do to clear himself of these false charges if it is his description that has been circulated among the Episcopalian churches. I told him that he should do nothing about this but warned him that if he was not being honest in this matter it would go very hard on him. He again assured me that he was absolutely innocent of any such charges of pilfering and stated that it must be a case of mistaken identity.

Apparently for the present we will have to take his word for it and believe him since in no case had he or any other in clerical attire been actually caught in the act of the stealing. In some of these cases it looks rather suspicious for him. It could be coincidental. One corroboration of his innocence may be the fact that the car involved has been positively identified as a 1959 black Chevrolet and he claims that he never owned such a car. This I will be able to check when I get the bill of sale of his present Chevrolet and also what car he previously traded in since these pilferings have been occurring only in the last year and a half.

Dear Rev. Father,

It is with regret that I find myself compelled to write to you and inform you of a situation that has developed here involving one of your local Priests, Father Savage.

Last summer my son ____, who is now 16, was corresponding with a school chum who was studying for the priesthood.

My husband and I were shocked when it was brought to our attention by the Priest in charge of the Seminary that my son was writing letters that were unfit for a young man to read and certainly unworthy of my son's character.

Father Savage is the sponsor of this boy so it finally was placed in his hands and my husband and the father of this boy met at Father Savage's home and settled the matter. I didn't see the letter but my husband informed me that it did not contain anything that warranted such highly agitated reaction on both Priests parts. Now here it is. Father Savage has revealed to a person his dis gustful opinion of my son on the letter writing incident. This may be the first occasion, or of many, but it is the first that has come to our knowledge. Surely such slanderous action cannot be tolerated from a person of the cloth. He has done immeasurable harm by robbing my son of his reputation.

To excuse the Priest of his actions, due to the fact that he is old and retired, I will do only if you say I must. If you deem it necessary for other action I would be all to glad to cooperate. Can I go to him and ask him to vindicate my son's good name? Please inform me at an early reply to obviate any future occurrences. Should it be called to the Cardinal's attention, or similar channels, so that a justifiable action will be accomplished? Please, Father this is important to me.

Fraternally Yours,

I spoke with Father Laurence Hanley, assistant at St. Peter's in Antioch. Father Hanley knows the [Redacted] family very well. He states that they are a very fine family.

The Seminarian in question is one [Redacted]. He attended Quigley for one year, but was told to leave. The priests in the Parish feel that he does not belong in the Seminary. However, Father Savage took an interest in him, and arranged for him to attend another seminary - Xaverian Missionary Fathers. Father Hanley knows that this seminary is looking for any excuse to release the boy. When he received the letter from the [Redacted] boy, it seemed like a good way to release him. The letter told about the dates he had been having - and it might be taken as suggestive, but Father Hanley didn't think the boy meant it this way.

Father Savage became quite upset about the whole thing. He did tell one of the families in the Parish that the [Redacted] boy was no good. Father Savage does not help at St. Peters. But he does help at Wilmot, in Wisconsin, and in various missions. He must have the faculties of Milwaukee.

In the summer of 1962, I took a trip with my seminarians to Mexico City, and Our Lady of Guadalupe Shrine.

Abbot Felix suggested we visit their new monastery at Morelia and the Collegio Tepiac, Mexico City. Since then monasteries have been founded at Managua, Nicaragua, Santa Ana, El Salvador, and Santa Clara, Costa Rica, Latin America.

Our Council Knights of Columbus No. 3800, St. Peters, Antioch, have approached Abbot Felix, with the offer, that we of the K. C.'s adopt or extend our help to any one of these four needy missions. I am happy to offer my extensive mailing list to this most worthy cause. Please help me to continue my work for the Missions.

But a few points are to be observed to expedite this work. 1. We ask, especially for clothing but since it will be used in warm climates, send only light weight clothing. Heavier clothes, overcoats and the like, please send as before to: Sisters of St. Joseph, Indian School, Keshena, Wisconsin.

A NEW CHALICE

Our Lord's life began and ended closely associated with wood. The wood of the manger and the wood of the cross. For some time I have wished to construct a chalice of colorful petrified wood. The cup of purest gold and around the cup, engrave a saying attributed to St. Benedict. The cryptic saying is "Calyx Ligni - Sacerdos Aurii. Calyx Aurii - Sacerdos Ligni".

When Chalices were of wood - Priests were of Gold. When Chalices were Gold - Priests were of wood. St. Benedict may have made this comparative observation in order to exhort his monks to still greater zeal and holiness. Here is a sketch. The base, firmly on the ground, as the roots of a tree, the idea of a tree further carried out in the straight trunk like shape of the standard. Around the cup are four sets of alternating gold nuggets, framed in petrified wood and sets of petrified wood framed in gold, separating the saying into four parts.

Another idea I'm working on is a Monstrance, to be made from a casing of a shell that was fired in a battle of World War I. It is a 300 M.M. base and some 28" high. It will be cut on dotted lines, bent to one flat surface and cut away. Luna of pure gold placed in center, finished in burnished brass.

An implement once of destruction and death now a sign of peace and blessing.

2. Send no package directly to any of the four Missions, they may not receive them, due to political conditions. 3. Address all packages to the Catholic Relief Service, 350 Fifth Ave., New York, N.Y. Designate if you will, to which of the four Missions you wish to send it. Mark the package K.C. No. 3800 so we may know how many packages each Mission receives.

The Catholic Relief Service will forward all packages received by them.

St. Gregory relates the following incident. St. Benedict only once visited his twin sister, St. Scholastica in her convent for she had formed the order of Benedictine Sisters. As nightfall approached and Benedict prepared to return to his monastery, Scholastica begged him to remain. Benedict refused, then a sudden and terrifying storm arose and Benedict was forced to remain thru the night. Thus Scholastica's prayer was answered and Brother and Sister spent the night in Holy Conversation. When morning came, they parted, never to see each other again in this life.
I again ask you for your help in the coming year for many of God's little ones and for his poor, poor peons.

My request is that you send anything for which you have no further use. Styles do not change so often in these countries.

Let the clothing however, be clean, whole and wearable.

In lieu of a package anyone wishing to make a donation, however small, it will be gratefully received. This will help me to carry on my work of making up packages of things that will still be sent to me, that I may send them on to the missions. *Stamps do cost money. Or a gift may be made toward the completion of the Chalice and Monstrance.

Please, my dear friends, send your packages to the missions, and your prayers for my boys to God. May I express the thanks of those who have been aided, by the gifts of those who gave.

The Christ Child grant you a Blessed Christmas and a Happy New Year. God Bless You.

Father Savage

P.S. Would you please send your cancelled stamps and JUNK JOOLERY to me, as I have time to process and repair these two items.

*Stamps do cost money.

My Dear Friends:

My card this year is dedicated to St. Benedict, founder of the Benedictine order, and Patriarch of Western Monasticism.

We who live in Antioch, Ill. were blessed many years ago, with the coming of Abbot Felix O.S.B., who established a monastery here, giving it the name of Benet Lake. It has been blessed by God, prospered and grown. Benedictines have an innate manner of growing — by dividing, and true to the Spirit of St. Benedict, Benet Lake has sent forth Monks and Brothers to found in all, nine Monasteries in the States and Central America.

The Missionary Sisters of St. Benedict, St. Scholastica's convent, Benet Lake, Wisconsin were also established to assist in this vast work. Postulants are invited to correspond, address above.

St. Benedict's enemies wishing to destroy him, secretly placed poison in his goblet. As Benedict blessed the daily food, the glass was shattered, and Benedict was spared by the Power of God.

Enclosed is a piece of literature soliciting funds which was given to me by a friend of mine who asked if I knew anything about Father Savage. I do not recall ever having heard of Father Savage.

Although he makes reference to the Benedictines at Benet Lake, and St. Peters, Antioch, apparently he is not attached to either place.

I have no particular interest. I told my friend that I knew nothing about Father Savage but that the literature was rather odd. I am sending it to you merely for your information. If Father Savage is making a legitimate appeal, all is well; if he is not, I thought you would like to know about it.

I saw Father Savage today concerning the brochure that he is sending to lay people. I had previously spoken with His Eminence about this matter, and his decision was that Father Savage was to discontinue this activity under pain of suspension. I relayed this message to Father Savage, and though he was perturbed by this decision, he said that he agreed to stop circulating this information and appeal.

Later I spoke with His Eminence and he is quite concerned about Father Savage; he had some dealings with him before regarding a seminar and an accusation of homosexuality. He said that [redacted] would have some information concerning this. I spoke with [redacted] and he wrote me the enclosed letter concerning Father Savage. I showed this material to His Eminence and I advised that Father Savage be commanded under suspension to leave the area of Antioch, and that we try to arrange to put him somewhere. The difficulty is where to put him. No decision was made.

Monsignor Francis Byrne

Dear Monsignor Byrne:

This letter is in connection with our conversation on the phone this morning, regarding Father Joseph Savage of Antioch, a retired priest. First of all I wish to remark that the drive which Father Savage put on by mail for clothing, medical supplies and money in our Mission Friary in Morelia, Mexico, was something which he took upon himself; the printed matter was not printed in our Print Shop, and I was not aware that he was using our name and claiming us as "His boys." I was more than astonished last week when one of the Knights of Columbus of St. Peter's in Antioch had informed me that at the instigation of Father Savage, they had gathered a small truck load of used clothing for me to ship to our Friary in Morelia. The cost of the customs alone would far exceed the value of the goods.

"We certainly need things like that especially medical supplies but we have been taking care of that ourselves without any such outside help. Within the last six months I have sent medicine and clothing to Morelia from our Abbey with Father Phillip who bought a car when he was here and managed to bring the needed supplies with him."

This is not the first time that Father Savage has taken the liberty of using our name in matters such as this, in matters that have embarrassed me more than once. So please tell good Cardinal Neuer that we were innocent of any implication in this matter.

I am sure that the Cardinal knows that Father Savage has been "retired" for more than twenty years. There is quite a history connected with his retirement that I know only by gossip. But since he has been in Antioch, he has been nothing but a source of scandal to the good people living there. The Cardinal will recall that I took a young boy of the area by the name of [redacted] to see him after the young man had complained of a homo-sexual mess that Father Savage had gotten him into. At that time this boy told me and told the Cardinal that over a period of ten years Father Savage had seduced over 20 boys and God only knows how many since, but I feel sure in saying quite a few more.
This boy is in now, but his good parents live in Chicago, and if you would like their address I could send it to you. His mother, by the way, sent the boy to me in the first place when she first learned of the situation.

I might mention that Father Savage has little use for me since I ordered him off the property ten years ago when he was trying to build up some particular friendships among members of the community. Most of the boys which Father Savage had seduced live in Wisconsin. Father Savage, as you know lives alone in Antioch and sometimes has innocent lads stay with him overnight. He helps out in Wilmot, Wisconsin where he makes friends with these boys and that is why they mostly live in the Wilmot area and surroundings; some also are from Antioch.

It seems to me that this priest is a great detriment to the Church here in Antioch. It was told to me that a year or so ago when the Emergency squad came and took him to the Catholic Hospital in Waukegan; for some reason he was angry and cursed and swore vilely in their presence; all of these men were non-catholic and were shocked at a catholic priest using such language, and a man they were trying to help.

A neighbor of Father Savage, who up until last year lived across the street from him, is a fine catholic, sold his home and moved away to get away from his vile tongue, which Father Savage frequently and loudly cursed his wife. During the course of the past year the poor woman had a nervous breakdown.

Father Savage has been arrested once to my knowledge and several other times I suppose for molesting young boys, but he always manages to squeeze out of it. To say the least he needs Psychiatric Treatment.

You will understand that it is difficult to get young boys to admit to such an association as these, but I feel quite confident in saying without any exaggeration he has perverted twenty five young men whom I have learned about during my years at Penet Lake. As you may know Father Savage makes it a practice to invite boys to stay overnight in his home and during the summer time to take groups of boys on long journeys by car. He has taken such trips to Alaska and Mexico City. The parents think that he is a grand man taking them on such trips; most of them I am sure have no idea of what goes on in his home or on the trips.

I trust that this is the information which you have desired, dear Monsignor Byrne and I hope that something can be done to remedy the situation.

Please consider this letter confidential.

Sincerely in Christ,

Dear Father Savage:

It was most gracious of you to send me this message of appreciation and this gift for what little I was able to do to make your Golden Anniversary such an enjoyable occasion.

I regretted sincerely that I could not be with you, but my schedule was such that it did not permit me to join with your many friends in tendering to you a tribute for your many years of dedicated service. I have remembered you in my Mass and I pray that God will lengthen your years of priestly service.

Wishing you an abundance of blessings at Eastertide and with kindest personal regards, I am, dear Father Savage,

IT'S CHRISTMAS AGAIN!

The most beautiful time of the year — when we celebrate our Savior's Birthday. But for many, many kids throughout the borderland of our vast Southwest you have made almost every day a Christmas day — not only in the material sense — because of all the wonderful things you have sent; but also in the spiritual sense because of your unique help to Father James Madden of the mission diocese of El Paso, Texas — and to it's Ordinary — His Grace — Bishop Metzger. With this help, Father James has the opportunity to bring our Lord to numerous young souls, thru his C.Y.O. youth program. Christ is born again in these young hearts, because of your generous hearts; Father Jim can always use old clothes and shoes, old household items, religious articles, canceled stamps and especially old gold and even "Junk Jewlery" of all kinds from 24C to 5 & 10c. Very many families are clothed and fed and given other help from funds realized thru the bargain sales of the "Guadalupe Thrift Store." Many more little unfortunate kids in hospitals and orphanages enjoy the beautiful and interesting scrapbooks and holy cards made from the old Christmas and Greeting Cards, that you have sent to us from all over the nation by the hundreds of millions. Many of the good Missionary Sisters make holy cards and distribute them among the poor kids. Father Jim can put to good use all cards of any kind you can send to him down in Texas. As you can see from this Christmas letter the eyes of Texas are upon you, little kid's eyes, that are little windows of pleading, searching souls. Because of your thoughtfulness to go out of your way to help others in the name of God our Father — these little windows are lighted with a sparkle of joy — a gleam of gladness — they are thankful eyes. For your convenience you will find enclosed in this letter mailing labels for your much-appreciated package to help the kids.

PLEASE SEND USED GREETING CARDS

The printing this year was upped to 30,000 copies.

IF

Each one showed it to your Club the total would be close to 1,000,000.

Each one of you shows your copy to one other person — 60,000.

Each one would give it to your local newspaper column, as an after Christmas request for used cards — you guess it!

I am enclosing our latest listing of all the men with whom the PRMAA is involved in one way or another. Dorothy Vercruysse has a copy also.

It has come to my attention from some of his friends in Antioch, Illinois, that Father Savage, age 83, should no longer be living alone. This is also the opinion of Mr. Edward Jacobs, an attorney, who is conservator of his estate. Am alerting Msgr. Koenig of the situation and the PRMAA will work out a solution to the problem.

Cordially yours in Christ,

Your Eminence:

This letter will bring you up to date on the above-mentioned men.

2. Rev. Joseph Savage: 83 years of age, now unable to take care of himself, living in his home in Antioch, Illinois. He has a local attorney who is conservator of his estate and receives for Fr. Savage his monthly pension check of $400.00 from Aetna. He was not at home when I visited him a few weeks ago. I did talk to Fr. Frank Johnson, Pastor of St. Peter's Church, Antioch. Frank had nothing but good to say about Fr. Savage and he and the attorney are going to place him in a Catholic facility in Kenosha, Wisconsin. This should relieve the concern many people in town have for Fr. Savage.
The Board of the PRMAA appreciates your great concern for all the men under our care.

Re: Joseph Savage

Date: 2/6/99

On Monday 1/25/99 I received a call from Bishop Kicanas telling me of a conversation he had with Deacon [redacted]. I told me I knew Bob. Kicanas suggested that I call [redacted] because he came across some stories relative to a Father Joseph Savage. Neither Kicanas not I knew of any Archdiocesan priest with that name.

That same morning I called [redacted]. He is an insurance agent for the Catholic Knights. When visiting with a client recently, a man 53yrs. old, the gentleman mentioned his anger with the Church. As [redacted] listened he found out that the man's alienation from the church was rooted in some sexual abuse when he was a pre-adolescent. I never got the gentleman's name. The priest's name was Joseph Savage. In telling the story the man mentioned about six other names to [redacted] recognized some of the names as men known in the town of Antioch and members of the parish.

The man said that there were not only sexual improprieties but that the priest also had them steal even sacred vessels. These things he would justify because he would send them to the missions.

When [redacted] heard of the sexual misconduct, he knew that he had to report this matter. He did not tell the man that he felt he needed to report the matter. When he told Kicanas, the Bishop told him that he would call our office for a sense of direction.

I told [redacted] that I would bring this matter to PCAC that afternoon and then get back to him.

I then called Tom Paprocki to have him look for a file with the name of Joseph Savage and to put the matter on the PCAC agenda.
Tom did not have time to look for a file on Savage before the meeting.

On Tuesday afternoon Tom called me with the file on Savage in hand.

He was born in 1890. Ordained in 1918. He served at St. Andrew, St. Mark, IC in Elmhurst, John Berchman, St. Mark in Manuka. He was pastor at St. Patrick in Wadsworth in 1927 and at Holy Cross in Deerfield in 1936.

When a Mrs. made formal complaint he resigned from the pastorate. He was placed under a double precept and sent to

At the request of Father Jos. Mueller he left and became an assistant with him in Minocqua in 1938. Because of problems Mueller dismissed him in 1940. By 1950 he was living alone in his mother’s house in Antioch. He helped in Wilmot.

In 1960 the Episcopal church made a complain to the Archdiocese that a priest was involved in desecrations and robbery of some of their churches. Savage was questioned but the evidence was only circumstantial.

In 1963 other names surfaced - An OSB from Benet Lake states that probably 20 - 25 boys have be hurt by Savage and that he was a "detriment to the Church".

In 1967 he was reprimanded for fund-raising for a "Home for Homeless Children". In 1973 he was unable to care for himself. In June 1974 he died.

After discussion I was directed to talk to the Deacon and tell him to encourage the man to become reconciled with the Church. If he wanted to talk to someone about his problems might suggest he speak with Bishop Kicanas.

On Wednesday 1/27/99 I spoke to Kicanas and told him simply that Savage was a priest of Chicago. He died in 1974. But he was a bad man. I apprised J. Kicanas that I would be calling and encouraging him to contact Kikanas so to be reconciled with the Church. If and when he accessed Kicanas the Bishop could have him seek help through Victim’s Assistance or call our Office.

Laura
Laura, I had a conversation with Jac Treanor today re: Joseph Savage.

Jac considers Savage one of the worst predators and pedophiles that ever existed. He retired/resigned in 1936. After that, he floated around, disregarded the resignation, said Mass when he wanted to, engaged with youth. Savage had no faculties to continue priestly activities, but went ahead anyway. He was under house arrest in Antioch for a time.

Whatever is available on him is in the archives. I will fax you the card which indicates that he resigned as of 1936 and died in 1974. If people need to know more, they may have to go to archives to review the file.

Have a good day! Mary Ann

PFRA spoke with Dr. Barbara Reinke [BR] from the Archdiocese of Milwaukee, Wisconsin via phone regarding [redacted] allegation of sexual misconduct against Joseph Savage [JS].

BR stated that according to Milwaukee Archdiocesan records, JS never had an official assignment in the Archdiocese of Milwaukee. PFRA explained that BR alleges that the abuse occurred in the fall of 1953 when she was in third grade at Holy Name school in Wilmont, Wisconsin. BR looked up the assignments for Holy Name school in 1953 and reported that the only priest assigned there was Fr. J [or “Jay”] Herald O’Connor and that there were four Sisters of the Charity assigned at the school as well.

As per BR, there is no record of JS in the Chancery Records in Wisconsin. BR stated that she first heard of JS when [redacted] contacted her with the allegation. BR tracked JS to the Archdiocese of Chicago and as a result, forwarded [redacted]’s allegation to our office.

‘He may have stolen my youth, but I won’t let him have my faith’

Published 10/19 at 11:38 p.m.

BY JILL TATGE-ROZELL
jrozelle@kenoshanews.com

It’s been 11 years since he vanished, now 68, reported the sexual abuse she suffered as a child at the hands of a local priest.

She said there is satisfaction in knowing her abuser, Joseph Savage, has been unmasked. It allowed her to begin the healing process.
"I still don’t necessarily trust people who are in a position of authority in the church," said. "But I am a Catholic and no one is ever going to take that away from me. He may have stolen my youth, but I won’t let him have my faith."

wasn’t the only one to issue allegations against priests who served at Holy Name of Jesus Catholic Church in Wilmot in the 1950s. and brought official complaints before the Archdiocese of Milwaukee regarding alleged abuse by former priests Harold Herbst and Joseph Savage.

Scared into silence said her late brother and two other family members were also allegedly abused by Savage — who had been defrocked by the Archdiocese of Chicago in 1936, prior to coming to Wilmot.

Scared into silence in their youth, it took more than 30 years for the alleged victims to come forward. Both priests were already deceased when the reports were filed. The purpose of their reports, they said, was to reach out to other victims and make sure information about clergy abuse is made public.

“We wanted to reach out to other victims and let them know they are not alone,” said. “There are hundreds out there. We have just scratched the surface.”

Confided in another abuser first went to the Rev. George Nuebling at St. John Catholic Church in Twin Lakes before going public. This was before allegations regarding Nuebling surfaced.

“The first person I told was Father George Nuebling,” she said. “He was good to my family. My father converted because of him. I respected him and I trusted him. That is why I went to him.”

Nuebling’s response was that she should tell her husband and pray. She didn’t know she had confessed her abuse to another abuser.

“When I found out the monster he was I felt abused all over again,” she said.

said the Archdiocese of Milwaukee referred her to Chicago. In 2003, she received a report from the Archdiocese of Chicago Office of Professional Fitness Review. She learned Savage was forced to resign in 1938 after alleged sexual abuse of a 14-year-old boy. However, none of that information was shared with subsequent congregations where Savage served.

According to the report says he was possibly reinstated in 1938 at a diocese in northern Wisconsin. It is unclear how Savage was allowed to celebrate his Golden Jubilee at St. Peter’s Catholic Church in Antioch, Ill., when he was no longer a member of that diocese.

Goes public with report

She went public with the findings. It was a frightening thing to do, she said.

http://www.kenoshanews.com/news/he_may_have_stolen_my_youth_but_i_wont_let_hi... 10/21/2013
"It wasn't easy to walk around town after the article came out," she admits, referencing a newspaper article that appeared in the Kenosha News in April 2004.

But people did come forward. She got letters from other victims, some anonymous, some signed.

Documents regarding the allegations involving Herbst were released earlier this year by the Archdiocese of Milwaukee. Those involving Savage were handled by the Archdiocese of Chicago.

Counseling sessions

The Archdiocese of Chicago provided group and individual counseling, along with opportunities for victim-survivors to attend overnight retreats.

Her counseling sessions ended this spring.

"That was very traumatic for me — to end that," she said, adding if she could have continued it for the rest of her life, she would.

She is grateful for the Rev. Roger Savage at Holy Name (no relation to Joseph Savage) for believing her and being an advocate for the victim survivors from that parish.

"My former parish has removed the pictures of my abuser and the two pastors he served under who knew about the abuse but did not stop it," she said.

In 2004 and 2005, the archdiocese in Milwaukee entered into settlements with victims claiming abuse by Herbst. The initial settlement, which included Holy Name Congregation, resulted in a payment of $75,000. The latter one resulted in a payment of $75,000, and up to an additional $25,000 for any treatment needs.

The Healing Garden at Holy Family Parish in Chicago is a place where victims of clergy abuse can go to feel free from fear, shame and judgment.

"We want it to be a place where people will find compassion, comfort and healing," [redacted], a member of the planning committee, said.

[Redacted], of [redacted], is one of four victim-survivors who were asked by the Archdiocese of Chicago to help make the garden, dedicated on June 9, 2011, a reality. The committee also included two diocesan priests and staff from the Office for the Protection of Children and Youth.

"Being able to serve on the Healing Garden Committee has been a tremendous catalyst in my growth," [redacted] said. "I can now manage my anger and overwhelming fears."

Being involved in the project also helped [redacted] find her way back to the church.

"I have recently returned to attending Mass and receiving the sacraments with great joy," [redacted] said. "The pain will always be there, but I have channeled it into helping others."

The garden was the site of a recent Mass of Atonement, attended by hundreds who prayed for the protection of children.

"It is not just for those who have been abused," [redacted] said. "It is also for those whose faith has been shaken by the stories."

The location of the garden at Holy Family Parish, 1080 W. Roosevelt Road in Chicago, is an appropriate testament to survival and strength, [redacted] said. Holy Family Church is one of only two to survive the Great Chicago Fire of 1871.

The lush gardens symbolize rebirth and growth, [redacted] said there are more than 25 varieties of trees, plants and flowers.

But it is the centerpiece of the garden, a sculpture called The Circle of Love, that [redacted] said is her favorite detail. The sculpture depicts the Holy Family joyfully dancing together.

"The statue is very moving to me," she said. "They are dancing — smiling — in a circle of love. It is very uplifting."

The bronze sculpture, a work by artist George Michael Myers of Prescott, Ariz., weighs just under 600 pounds. It is a gift from the Sisters of the Holy Family of Nazareth.
